Dear Mr Mathews

I refer to your email to the Brisbane District Registrar dated 16 July 2007. Your letter has been referred to the Principal Registry for response.

As I understand it, you are asking the Tribunal to conduct an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) process by email. I must inform you that the Tribunal is unable to agree to this request. The forms of ADR offered by the Tribunal, including conferencing, mediation and conciliation, can only be conducted face-to-face or via telephone or video-link. While the Tribunal is prepared to offer all reasonable assistance to help you participate in an ADR process, I regret that we cannot conduct an ADR process by email.

If you do not wish to participate in an ADR process, the Tribunal would be happy to make arrangements to have the matter heard as soon as possible.
